if you manage to survive the final battle, you will be given a special ending cutscene, with the president thanking leon, chris, and jake for their efforts and praising the survivors. the president will then be informed by kanjo that the site of the president's (and sherry's) rescue is actually a secret laboratory where the cure is being developed, and that it is absolutely imperative to secure the president. the president will ask jake and leon if they can deliver him safely. if leon can be convinced to perform a raid on the lab, he will be given the chance to join the president's task force. if jake can be convinced to join, he will also be given the opportunity to join the president's task force. the president will then be taken back to the plane, and the bsaa will fly off to the safety of the mainland. the game's levels are generally big, and have lots of enemies, so they'll take longer to traverse. in this respect, they're similar to those of the resident evil 5 remake, though the new game has more of them. furthermore, the new game is more robust and feature better enemy ai. there is a new "timed" option in the inventory, which lets players pause the game at certain points during each level. this helps players navigate the levels more efficiently. in resident evil 6, as you go through the game, you'll unlock features, including more weapons, and new character classes. the tutorial also has a good list of tips to keep players from getting lost in the game's first few hours. just like resident evil 5, resident evil 6 can be played in a single-player or co-op mode. it also comes with the option to play as a new character class: the screamer. the screamer is a new character class that can run up walls, and shoot fireballs. they're fun to play, and have a cool special ability, but they can be difficult to play.

Training Mode. She is the PC's equivalent to the character Jake Muller in the Resident Evil 5 console versions. Her mission is to teach players how to fight through a fire fight with limited resources. She warns the player at several points that if they're not careful with their supplies and follow her instructions carefully, the attack may end up costing them their lives. This mode is designed to be easy enough for a first-time PC player to understand, without sacrificing the depth and challenge of the main game. 5ec8ef588b
